

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO – FACULTY OF ARTS & SCIENCE
2023 FALL – 2024 WINTER SESSION
SUBJECT POST WITHDRAWAL SCHEDULE

Were you admitted into a Faculty of Arts & Science Deregulated program during 2023 Fall – 2024 Winter session?

Deregulated tuition fees are billed for Faculty of Arts & Science Deregulated programs:

- Bachelor of Commerce (BCOM) – Rotman Commerce Specialist: Year 2 or higher
- Computer Science Major or Specialist: Year 2 or higher
- Data Science Specialist: Year 2 or higher
- Bioinformatics & Computational Biology Specialist: Year 2 or higher

The tuition rate for deregulated programs is higher. Students are assessed fees once for each degree program registration. If a student is enrolled in more than one deregulated program, he/she will be assessed the highest fees applicable to that deregulated program. Students are charged deregulated fees as soon as they accept enrolment in one of the designated deregulated programs.

How are deregulated tuition fees billed at the program entry point?

- The normal entry point for these programs is the session following the session where the 4th credit is earned. Students will be billed deregulated tuition fees starting in the session following the session where the 4th credit is earned.
- Students entering the program at a later point will be charged deregulated fees retroactively to the session designated as the normal entry point for the program.
- Students admitted with transfer credit will be charged the program fee immediately if transfer credits of 4 or greater are granted.
- Detailed information about deregulated fees can be found on the Faculty of Arts & Science's webpage on Fees & Refunds (under the Deregulated Fee Programs subheading).
