FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

Why should I pay with Flywire?

Trusted by thousands of students around the globe, Flywire is one of the safest, most convenient ways to make international education payments to the University of Toronto.

Flywire has been fully vetted by the University of Toronto as an approved international payment processor. Flywire provides UofT students with a safe and easy way to make payments to University of Toronto from around the world.

Is Flywire safe?

Yes! Flywire undergoes an annual SOC II and PCI DSS review to help ensure customer data is handled securely and in compliance with all applicable laws, including, but not limited to, GDPR, PIPEDA, FERPA, GLBA and other data protection laws.

You can learn more about our security measures at <https://www.flywire.com/company/security>

What is the 'Best Price Guarantee'?

Flywire aims to provide the best price for international payments. If you find a better rate at your bank within two hours of booking a local currency bank transfer payment with Flywire, we will match the rate offered by your bank.

To Submit a Best Price Guarantee:

- 1) Take a screenshot of your bank quote (including fees) for the same amount you booked in Flywire, within two hours.
- 2) Send the quote and your newly created Flywire payment ID (3 letters and 9 digits, example ABC123456789) to support@flywire.com.

If the quote is eligible, Flywire will adjust the rate on your booking and let you know the new amount to send.

How do I track my payment?

Students can track their payment via text message or in the tracking link provided in their confirmation email (sent from Flywire).

Is my rate guaranteed?

Flywire will honour your exchange rate for a set amount of time. Once your payment is initiated, this guarantees the rate quoted. The final confirmation page will outline how long your rate is guaranteed and give instructions as to what date you need to pay by. This can vary by payment method and country.

Now, you need to make a bank transfer from your bank account to ours no later than July 19, 2023

How can I complete my bank transfer?

You will need to complete your bank transfer outside of Flywire's platform via online banking, telephone transfer or by visiting your local bank branch in person.

HOW TO PAY:

Important: It is important that you follow these steps every time you make a payment. This process generates a new Payment ID which is a unique reference number that helps Flywire and UofT identify your payment. Not following these instructions may result in a payment being delayed.

Step 1:

To begin your payment, read the following disclaimer

(https://help.flywire.com/hc/en-us/p/UofT_Flywire_Disclaimer) & click on the button at the bottom.

Disclaimer prior to completing your payment with Flywire

1. Payment will be accepted by the University of Toronto only for the amount of tuition and residence fees. Funds for living expenses MUST be directed to the student's own financial institution. University of Toronto reserves the right to hold funds sent in excess of tuition and residence fees for a subsequent term, or return excess funds to sender.
2. Due to banking regulations regarding sanctioned countries and regions, Flywire is unable to process payments from sanctioned countries. If you attempt to make a payment from a sanctioned country, you will receive a message indicating the Flywire service is not available in that country. Refunds to sanctioned countries are not possible.
3. Obligations of a Registered Student: A student is considered to be registered as soon as he or she has paid tuition and incidental fees, or has made appropriate arrangements to register without payment of the first tuition fee payment (tuition fee deferral). By virtue of being registered, a student thereby agrees to abide by all of the academic and non-academic policies, rules and regulations of the University and of his or her academic division, as set out in the divisional calendar, and to ensure that the accuracy of personal information such as the current mailing address, telephone number, and utoronto.ca email address is maintained.
4. A student is responsible for any financial obligations which may be incurred in the process of making changes to registration and/or course enrolment.
5. If the University will refund a Flywire incoming fee payment, the amount you receive back may be different than the amount you paid in the original Flywire transaction based on market conditions at the time of the Flywire refund. Subject to applicable regulations and policies of our banking and payment partners, Flywire may not be able to refund to you an amount that exceeds the amount paid in the original currency.
6. The University of Toronto respects your privacy. Personal information that you provide to the University is collected pursuant to section 2(14) of the University of Toronto Act, 1971. It is collected for the purpose of administering admission, registration, academic programs, university-related student activities, activities of student societies, financial assistance and awards, graduation and university advancement, and for the purpose of statistical reporting to government agencies. At all times it will be protected in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. If you have questions, please refer to www.utoronto.ca/privacy and/or contact the University Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Coordinator at 416 946-7303 or 416-978-4873, Office of the Governing Council, 27 King's College Circle, Toronto, ON, M5S 1A1.
7. Information that you provide to Flywire is subject to its own privacy policy, available at: <https://www.flywire.com/legal/privacy-policy>. If Flywire stores or moves information outside of Canada, it may be subject to the laws of that jurisdiction and not those of Canada or Ontario.

For payment-related inquiries, you can contact Flywire support via email, phone or chat by visiting their Help Center.
